To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is enthusiastically written in support of the tenure and promotion of professor Frederick Green.

I know Mr. Green from our collaboration at trumpet festivals, competitions, and from our shared students. Mr. Green is a gentleman, a very fine player, and perhaps most significant to me, a very intuitive and effective teacher.

One might presume that everyone with advanced degrees and/or a college position is effective in the applied studio, but in my decades of experience, I find that to be absolutely not necessarily true. It is a great breath of fresh air to encounter Mr. Green and to hear the savvy and sophistication in his students' playing and in their demeanor. I am a fan.

Please consider Mr. Green's candidacy for promotion and tenure very positively. I wholeheartedly give him my highest possible recommendation.

Sincerely,

Karl Sievers, DMA
