Currently serving as Assistant Professor of Trumpet and Jazz at Missouri Southern State University, Mr. Green takes pride in preparing students for the current demands of teaching and performing the musical arts.

Mr. Green holds a bachelors degree in both performance from Rollins College and a Masters of Music in Performance with a concentration in music education from the University of Florida. He has also served as Fine Arts Director and Director of Bands at Faith Christian Academy in Orlando, FL.

As a performer Mr. Green, has performed internationally with musical “Chicago”, domestically with the Jacksonville Symphony Orchestra (Jacksonville, FL), Walt Disney World Orchestra (Orlando, FL), Bach Festival Society Orchestra (Winter Park, FL), Space Coast Symphony, Central Florida Civic Orchestra (Villages, FL), in addition to performing with the jazz legend Sam Rivers.

Instructional duties currently include: Trumpet Lessons, Jazz Orchestra, Brass Choir, Commercial Music Lessons, Coaching Brass Quintet, Trumpet Ensemble, in addition to performing in the Faculty Brass Quintet and Jazz Ensemble.

Thank you to Prof. Green, Prof. Spencer and Chamber Singers for sharing the stage with us during this concert today. Many thanks to the community members, fine arts faculty, Cottey administration, and Doug Harper for their support. I would especially like to thank Prof. Johnson for his work, much of which was behind the scenes, but essential to making these ensembles successful. ~JLordo
